ATTACHMENT B

I, AJIT DAVID, am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have knowledge of the following facts based upon both my investigation and discussions with other law enforcement personnel and others. Where statements of others are set forth herein, these statements are related in substance and in part. Where I assert that an event took place on a particular date, I am asserting that it took place on or about the date alleged.

1. On or about Friday, December 17, 2010, a light blue 2007 Acura MDX was stolen from victim J.G. at gunpoint in Newark, Essex County, New Jersey (hereinafter the "Acura Carjacking"). J.G. later provided a statement to Newark police officers regarding the Acura Carjacking. J.G. stated that a black male approached J.G.'s passenger side window while J.G. was in his vehicle. The black male put his head and torso in J.G.'s car and showed J.G. a silver revolver. The black male told J.G. to get out of the car. J.G. told the black male to take his money but not his car. The black male then punched J.G. and took J.G.'s car keys from the ignition. J.G. got out of the vehicle, where two other unidentified males were standing. The two unidentified males demanded that J.G. give them his money. While J.G. was standing outside his car with the other two males, the black male who punched him drove away in J.G.'s 2007 Acura MDX.

2. On or about Friday, December 17, 2010, a white 2001 Honda Accord was stolen from victim A.G. at gunpoint in Newark, Essex County, New Jersey (hereinafter the "Honda Carjacking"). During the Honda Carjacking, A.G. was struck with a weapon on the left side of his face.

3. On or about Sunday, December 19, 2010, a Newark police detective noticed a man, later identified as defendant AMONRA JACKSON, who pulled a black face mask over his head and was wearing black gloves, sitting in a white 2001 Honda Accord. The detective ran the license plate of the car and determined that it was the same car that had been stolen during the Honda Carjacking. As the detective approached, the white Honda, defendant JACKSON got out of the car, began to walk away from the Honda and then fled from police. After a short foot chase, defendant JACKSON was apprehended.

4. While defendant JACKSON was being arrested for receiving stolen property, a search incident to his arrest was conducted and defendant JACKSON was found to be in possession of a .22 caliber silver Derringer revolver. Also in defendant JACKSON's possession were four sets of keys to four other cars, specifically, a Jeep, a Mercedes, a Dodge and a Nissan.

5. After defendant JACKSON was arrested, his picture, along with the pictures of five other individuals, was shown to J.G., who was a victim of the Acura Carjacking. J.G. positively identified defendant JACKSON as the man who showed him a gun, punched him in the face, and stole his car.

6. The firearm defendant JACKSON had in his possession when he was arrested was determined to be a Derringer .22 caliber revolver, bearing serial number 75015. This firearm was manufactured in West Germany.

7. A review of criminal history records conducted after defendant JACKSON's apprehension revealed that prior to December 19, 2010, defendant JACKSON was convicted of a felony offense punishable by a term of imprisonment greater than one year in a court in the State of New Jersey.

8. According to the New Jersey Criminal History Record, on or about January 12, 2001, defendant JACKSON was convicted in Essex County Superior Court of receiving stolen property, in violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:20-7, and sentenced to three years imprisonment. This crime is a felony punishable by imprisonment in excess of one year, and it is one of several felony convictions defendant JACKSON has sustained for receiving stolen property.

9. J.G.'s 2007 Acura MDX was determined to have been manufactured in Ontario, Canada.
